Eating Out at Home - Mona Verma 2001

If you've ever stopped to taste the gol gappas scooped out by a roadside vendor, or stood in queue for a plate of fragrant, swimming-in-butter pav bhaji, to be washed down by a frosted glass of thandai, this book is for you! It captures the flavours of street food--the crispness of ragada pattis, the sweet and sour tanginess of papdi chaat and the famous Mumbai bhel, in addition to interesting variations like macaroni and mushroom chaat, lotus stem cutlets and khamaan dhokla. There are also recipes for bhindi raita, bheja pakoda, keema aur palak se bhare ande, paneer aur shimla mirch paratha and a hundred other unusual and innovative dishes designed to add a dash of verve and excitement to even the most staid menu

Development Through the Lifespan - Laura E. Berk 2013-08-05

Laura Berk's Development Through the Lifespan is relied upon in classrooms worldwide for its clear, engaging writing style, exceptional multicultural and cross-cultural focus, cutting-edge consideration of the interrelationships between heredity and environment, rich examples, and long-standing commitment to presenting the most up-to-date scholarship. This new edition continues to offer students research-based practical applications that they can relate to their personal and professional lives. Laura Berk, renowned professor and researcher, has revised the text with new pedagogy, a heightened emphasis on the interplay between heredity and environment, and an enhanced focus on many social policy issues, while emphasizing the lifespan perspective throughout. The latest theories and findings in the field are made accessible to students in a manageable and relevant way. Berk's signature storytelling style invites students to actively learn beside the text's "characters." Students are provided with an especially clear and coherent understanding of the sequence and underlying processes of human development, emphasizing the interrelatedness of all domains--physical, cognitive, emotional, social--throughout the text narrative and in special features. Berk also helps students connect their learning to their personal and professional areas of interest. Her voice comes through when speaking directly about issues students will face in their future pursuits as parents, educators, health care providers, social workers, and researchers. As members of a global and diverse human community, students are called to intelligently approach the responsibility of understanding and responding to the needs and concerns of both young and old. While carefully considering the complexities of human development, Berk presents classic and emerging theories in an especially clear, engaging writing style, with a multitude of research-based, real-world, cross-cultural, and multicultural examples. Strengthening the connections among developmental domains and of theory and research with applications, this edition's extensive revision brings forth the most recent scholarship, representing the changing field of human development. We call it a gismo. That's right, a gismo. A bit difficult to describe. Like a cross, I suppose, without the top part. Sort of two arms on a stand. What happens is this. You hang something on one arm. Anything at all. A watch, a bracelet, money, anything. I supposed you could hang a locomotive on, only it's a bit heavy. But anyway you hang something on and there on the opposite arm appears an exact replica. And I mean exact. You can't tell the difference. So nobody need make anything any more. What you need you hang on the gismo. No work. No want. No starvation. No nothing. When you've got a gismo, you've got everything.

Identity Break - Stifyn Emrys 2013-02-01

How far would you go to find yourself? Imagine everything you thought you knew about yourself turned out to be a lie, and you didn't know who was telling the truth. Imagine you possessed a secret so dangerous that, if it were exposed, it would reshape the entire world. What would you do if that secret were your very identity? In almost every way, Palo Vista seems like a typical California city, with office buildings, schools, and homes sprawled out across suburbia, filled with families making a life for themselves at the dawn of the new millennium. But two seniors at Mt. MacMurray High are about to find out that nothing is as it seems. Jason Nix is a star athlete and honors student who can't seem to remember anything about his childhood. Elyse Van Auten is a budding artist from a broken home whose father left her mother two years ago - or so she's been led to believe. Like most teens entering adulthood, Elyse and Jason just want to find out who they really are. For them, however, the stakes go far beyond their own personal quest. Join them on a journey of self-discovery that becomes a desperate fight for survival against enemies determined to conceal the truth ... and find out what happens when that fight becomes personal.

Brain Games - Elkhonon Goldberg 2008

This book is crammed with puzzles designed to stimulate each of your brain's cognitive functions, keeping it strong and fit. Many different types of puzzles are included, and each of the five levels increases the challenge of solving them. Includes three self-evaluations that allow you to assess your improvement in areas such as focus, attention, memory, and more. With these puzzles, exercising your brain can be fun! The consultant is Dr. Elkhorn Goldberg, a Ph.D. neuropsychologist who created the Manhattan-based Cognitive Enhancement Program, a fitness center for the brain and who wrote The Executive Brain: Frontal Lobes and the Civilized Mind; and The Wisdom Paradox: How Your Mind Can Grow Stronger as Your Brain Grows Older.

Once Bitten, Twice Burned - Cynthia Eden 2014-04-29

A vampire held captive plots his escape with the help of an irresistible woman in the New York Times bestselling author's scorching hot paranormal romance. Ryder Duncan keeps his secrets close. With a twisted scientist starving him in a ten-by-twelve cell, it's not easy to conceal the abilities that set him apart from other vampires, or his plans for escape. But survival—and revenge—are worth waiting for. Until the so-called doctor tempts his appetites with something special: a woman with a soft Southern accent and a scent like delectable flowers. Sabine Acadia didn't volunteer to be dinner. She was kidnapped and tossed into the cage of a monster. A monster with fierce green eyes, a body that speaks of ruthless power, and a touch as gentle as a caress. Ryder knows things about Sabine—secrets she doesn't even know about herself. And she'd better learn fast. Because while they might soon escape this prison, she's fighting an urge to set all her desires free . . .

Color of Friends - Wanda Battle- Frazier 2018-10-04

What happens when five ethically different females are brought together to compete for one job? Color of Friends explores the relationship between an African American, Caucasian, Hispanic, Asian, and Native American. These five women are equally qualified with the same life experience and education and are the finalists that have been chosen to compete for the last position at a fortune 500 company. The five are brought together by CEO President and Co-founder, Francis Millhouse. The five are informed about a series of sporting like events which they will have to complete and the winner will get the prestigious position. The only problem is they now have to live, eat, and entrust their life to complete strangers they don't have anything in common with. All they know about each other are the stereotypes and prejudiced remarks 'ever uttered about another race or culture. The question now becomes, how badly does each girl want this life-changing position? Will they walk away from it, or will they fight to the bitter end? Unbeknown to them, they also have to deal with the crazy antics of a madman who really brought these divas together for his own sinister reasons and personal gain. Color of Friends is a riveting story about forming new and diverse friendships and surviving the odds. Can five strangers who are different in every aspect of their life set their differences aside and work together for the greater good, theirs lives?
