Poetry That Holds, Stories Untold - Gina Ann Henderson
2004-11-01

Gina Henderson was born in Barstow, California, November of 1972. She didn't start writing poetry until she came to a time in her life when everything had become overwhelming. Writing poetry became a sort of release from all the troubles she was having to deal with, the beginning of a bad divorce and so forth. The poems written in Poetry That Holds, Stories Untold are all based on personal feelings, thoughts, and situations that occurred during this troublesome time. Gina has found that a lot of people can relate to what she went through and find her poems truly heartfelt.
