Modern Genre Theory - David Duff 2014-09-11

Since Aristotle, genre has been one of the fundamental concepts of literary theory, and much of the world's literature and criticism has been shaped by ideas about the nature, function and value of literary genres. Modern developments in critical theory, however, prompted in part by the iconoclastic practices of modern writers and the emergence of new media such as film and television, have put in question traditional categories, and challenged the assumptions on which earlier genre theory was based. This has led not just to a reinterpretation of individual genres and the development of new classifications, but also to a radically new understanding of such key topics as the mixing and evolution of genres, generic hierarchies and genre-systems, the politics and sociology of genres, and the relations between genre and gender. This anthology, the first of its kind in English, charts these fascinating developments. Through judicious selections from major twentieth-century genre theorists including Yury Tynyanov, Vladimir Propp, Mikhail Bakhtin, Hans Robert Jauss, Rosalie Colie, Fredric Jameson, Tzvetan Todorov, Gérard Genette and Jacques Derrida, it demonstrates the central role that notions of genre have played in Russian Formalism, structuralism and post-structuralism, reception theory, and various modes of historical criticism. Each essay is accompanied by a detailed headnote, and the volume opens with a lucid introduction emphasising the international and interdisciplinary character of modern debates about genre. Also included are an annotated bibliography and a glossary of key terms, making this an indispensable resource for students and anyone interested in genre studies or literary theory.

Critical Approaches to Food in Children's Literature - Kara K. Keeling 2012-03-20

Critical Approaches to Food in Children's Literature is the first scholarly volume on the topic, connecting children's literature to the burgeoning discipline of food studies. Following the lead of historians like Mark Kurlansky, Jeffrey Pilcher and Massimo Montanari, who use food as a fundamental node for understanding history, the essays in this volume present food as a multivalent signifier in children's literature, and make a strong argument for its central place in literature and literary theory. Written by some of the most respected scholars in the field, the essays between these covers tackle texts from the nineteenth century (Rudyard Kipling's Kim) to the contemporary (Dave Pilkey's Captain Underpants series), the U.S. multicultural (Asian-American) to the international (Ireland, Brazil, Mexico). Spanning genres such as picture books, chapter books, popular media, and children's cookbooks, contributors utilize a variety of approaches, including archival research, cultural studies, formalism, gender studies, post-colonialism, post-structuralism, race studies, structuralism, and theology. Innovative and wide-ranging, Critical Approaches to Food in Children's Literature provides us with a critical opportunity to puzzle out the significance of food in children's literature.

The Use and Effectiveness of Macroprudential Policies - Mr. Eugenio Cerutti 2015-03-17

Using a recent IMF survey and expanding on previous studies, we document the use of macroprudential policies for 119 countries over the 2000-13 period, covering many instruments. Emerging economies use macroprudential policies most frequently, especially foreign exchange related ones, while advanced countries use borrower-based policies more. Usage is generally associated with lower growth in credit, notably in household credit. Effects are less in financially more developed and open economies, however, and usage comes with greater cross-border borrowing, suggesting some avoidance. And while macroprudential policies can help manage financial cycles, they work less well in busts. The History of Bukhara - Abū Bakr Muḥammad ibn Ja'far Narshakhī 2007-01-01

Abu Bakr Muhammad ibn al-Narshakhi of Bukhara wrote the history of his city and presented it to the Samanid ruler Nuh ibn Nasr in 943 C.E. (A.H. 332). This is the only book he is known to have written. Narshakhi's History of Bukhara is unusual among histories of Middle Eastern cities because it provides a broad and perceptive overview of urban life of the time, as opposed to the standard biographies of religious leaders. Richard Frye's translation from the Persian presents an engaging, readable narrative that recreates the lively intellectual and commercial life of this vibrant ancient city. In the tenth century, Bukhara was a cultural center that rivaled Baghdad, and was known as "the dome of learning in the East." It was a dynamic metropolis, capital of the semi-independent dynasty that ruled most of present-day Iran and Central Asia. It was in Bukhara that the so-called Persian Renaissance began, with its far-reaching literary implications. Narshakhi portrays not only rulers, but also everyday life in cities and villages. This primary source affords insights into life in Eastern Iran and Central Asia during a period of change in the Islamic world. About Richard Frye: Richard N. Frye, Harvard University, is the author of The Heritage of Central Asia, Ibn Fadlan's Journey to Russia, and numerous other books.

Strategies of Fantasy - Brian Attebery 1992

In the early chapters, the author sorts out some of the confusion about the term fantasy, distinguishing the fantastic as a technique from fantasy as a popular formula and a literary genre. Looking back to the early reception of Tolkien's trend-setting epic fantasy, he points out how critical theory at the time was simply unable to account for either the strengths or the weaknesses of The Lord of the Rings. By contrast, critical methods developed for coping with postmodernist metafiction are shown to apply equally well to the genre of fantasy. Having worked primarily with older fantasies in his study of The Fantasy Tradition in American Literature, Attebery focuses here on important recent examples such as Gene Wolfe's Book of the New Sun, Suzette Haden Elgin's Ozark Trilogy, and John Crowley's Little, Big.

The Language of the Birds - Alisher Nava'i 2006-03-06

The Language of the Birds is a masterpiece of Eastern Turkish literature

(now Uzbek), and was written by one of Central Asia's most prominent poets, Alisher Nava'i, shortly before his death in 1501. The story begins with the birds of the world realizing they are far from their king and so they begin their arduous journey with the assistance of the wise bird Hoopoe as their guide. Hoopoe listens to their complaints and excuses along the way and encourages them to seek true life even though the journey is sometimes painful. This epic poem in prose form contains many anecdotes and stories from the oral history of the Silk Road and Islam. Through this story, people are exhorted to rise above any excuse they might have in their spiritual pilgrimage. Alisher Nava'i (1441-1501) is renowned in Central Asia for his numerous writings and lasting influence in Uzbekistan as well as the contemporary Central Asian republics. In modern Uzbekistan, Nava'i is revered above all other poets and his presence is still found – streets, museums, and even a province and city are named after him. His proverbs are found throughout Central Asia and he is considered the father of the Uzbek language. His words for peace and against oppression are as timely today as they were 5 centuries ago. Nava'i lived in Herat, Afghanistan. His writings, endowments, and his life example have had lasting influence in Central Asia. In The Language of the Birds, we are introduced to what Nava'i thought is important in life. It is a world of love that goes beyond the rational and is ready to endure anything for the beloved. This book is for anyone who values great historical literature, as well as those needing inspiration in his or her own pilgrimage in life.

Validity in Educational and Psychological Assessment - Paul Newton 2014-04-15

Lecturers, request your electronic inspection copy to review it for your course. Validity is the hallmark of quality for educational and psychological measurement. But what does quality mean in this context?

And to what, exactly, does the concept of validity apply? These apparently innocuous questions parachute the unwary inquirer into a minefield of tricky ideas. This book guides you through this minefield, investigating how the concept of validity has evolved from the nineteenth century to the present day. Communicating complicated concepts straightforwardly, the authors answer questions like: What does 'validity' mean? What does it mean to 'validate'? How many different kinds of validity are there? When does validation begin and end? Is reliability a part of validity, or distinct from it? This book will be of interest to anyone with a professional or academic interest in evaluating the quality of educational or psychological assessments, measurements and diagnoses.

Fixed Expressions - Ritva Laury 2020-11-15

This volume concerns the structure and use of fixed expressions in a range of typologically, genetically and areally distinct languages. The chapters consider the use contexts of fixed expressions, at the same time taking seriously the need to account for their structural aspects. Formulaicity is taken here as a central feature of everyday language use, and fixed expressions as a basic utterance building resource for interaction. Our crosslinguistic investigation suggests that humans have the propensity to automatize ways to handle various discourse-level needs for specific sequential contexts by creating (semi-)fixed expressions based on frequent patterns. The chapters examine topics such as the degrees and types of fixedness, the emergence of fixed expressions, their connection to social action, the new understanding of traditional linguistic categories in light of fixedness, crosslinguistic variation in types of fixed expressions, as well as their non-verbal aspects. The volume situates the notion of 'units' of language at the intersection of interaction and formal structure as part of a larger effort to replace rule-based conceptions of language with a more dynamic, realistic and pragmatically based model of language. The articles are based on naturally occurring data, mostly everyday conversation, in English, Estonian, Finnish, Japanese, and Mandarin, with some crosslinguistic comparison.

Galaktikada Bir Kun - One Day in the Galaxy - Sa'dullo Quronov

This work is written in Uzbek. This is for all Uzbeks in the world! O'zbek bolalar adabiyotidagi ilk ilmiy-fantastik asar! Mazkur asar voqealari koinotda kechuvchi o'tkir syujetlar asosiga qurilgan. Qissa qahramoni 12 yoshli Ahmad yaratgan juda noyob fazo kemasi yerlik olimlar qolib, o'zga sayyoraliklarning e'tiborini tortadi. Endi u o'zi bilmagan holda galaktikamizdagi yovuz kuchlar va yaxshilarning kurashiga aralashib qoladi... Asardan parcha - Ko'rib turganingizday qurilmani odatiy raketa fazoga olib chiqadi, - Ahmad chizmalarni namoyish qildi. Chizmadagi suratlarga qarab bir nimani tushunish qiyin edi. Chunki unda turli matematik belgi va formulalar, geometrik shakllar g'ij-g'ij edi. Ammo bir qarashda bu narsalar judayam malakali muhandis tomonidan tuzilgan chizmaga o'xshab ketardi. - Uchar qurilma raketadan ajralib, - davom etdi qahramonimiz, - kichik energiya evaziga fazodagi gravitatsiya to'lqiniga tushib oladi. Gravitatsiya, ya'ni butun olam tortishish qonunlariga ko'ra buni amalga oshirish mumkin. Nyuton va Eynshteynning gravitatsiya haqidagi nazariyalari ham buni tasdiqlaydi. Gravitatsiya butun olamni harakatlantirib turadigan ko'rinmas kuchdir. Fazoda esa gravitatsiyaning xuddi daryoga o'xshash to'lqinlari bor.

Mening kemam ana shu to'lqinga tushib olsa bas, fazoning istalgan nuqtasiga katta tezlikda uchib ketaveradi. - U shunday deb monitorida o'zining hisob-kitoblari tushirilgan chizmani ko'rsata boshladi. - Kvant fizikasining asoslari shuni ko'rsatadiki... - Shoshma, bolakay! - Ahmadning gapini ko'zoynak taqqan hakam to'xtatdi. - To'g'risi, bu chizmalar va sening gaplaringga tushunib bo'lmayapti. Sodda qilib aytganda, bu kema fazoda o'z-o'zidan, hech qanday raketa dvigatelsiz harakatlanadi, shundaymi? - Xuddi shunday! Mana, bizning Yer sayyoramiz ham Quyosh atrofida hech qanday dvigatelsiz soniyasiga 30 km tezlik bilan uchib yuradi-ku. Bu to'ppochadan otilgan o'qdan 100-marta tezroq degani, axir! Endi tanlovga yig'ilganlarning bari bir-biriga o'ychan qarab qolishgandi. Zalda "Mushtdek bolaning qulog'imizga lag'mon ilishini qarang", "Sal xayolparast bola ekan-mi?", "G'irt bo'lmagan gap" kabi pichir-pichirlar ko'payib qoldi. Ba'zilar esa Ahmadga hayrat bilan boqar, ularni uchar qurilma emas balki o'n ikki yoshli bolaning iqtidori ajablantirar edi. - Men hozirda uchar qurilmaning bir gravitatsiya to'lqinidan boshqa bir to'lqinga o'tib, o'z yo'nalishini o'zgartirishi masalasida izlanyapman. - Buning iloji yo'q! - dedi baland ovozda o'tirganlar orasida birov. Eng oxirgi qatordan kelgan bu ovoz egasini izlab hamma orqaga qaradi. Bu bo'ylari past, judayam ozg'in va xunuk bir odam edi. - Bolakay, nisbiylik nazariyasiga ko'ra, sen aytgan qurilmani fazoga uchirish mumkin, - tushuntira boshladi pakana odam. - Lekin uni boshqarib bo'lmay qoladi. Aniqrog'i, yerlik muhandislarning malakasi hali bunday qurilma yaratishga ojizlik qiladi. O'zicha bilag'onlik qilayotgan bu g'alati odamga hamma taajjublanib qarab qoldi. Bolalar esa yaxshi boshlangan tanlovning bunaqa tus olganiga ko'nika olmay qovoqlarini uyib olishgandi. - Nega endi?! - e'tiroz bildirdi Ahmad. - Nega desang, yerliklar atom fizikasi va gravitatsiya asoslarini hali unchalik tushunishmaydi. Balki ellik yoki yuz yildan so'ng bu boradagi bilimlaringiz ortib qolar... - Bo'ldi, bas qilinglar, - asabiy holda gapni bo'ldi ko'zoynakli hakam - yerliklar, yerliklar, deysiz... Nima, siz osmondan tushganmisiz?! Hakam shunday dediyu bir nuqtaga qarab, qotib qoldi. Chunki hozirgina odamlar orasida unga angrayib qarab turgan mahmadona odam xuddi yer yutganday g'oyib bo'lgandi. U ko"zoynagini yechib, ko"zlarini ishqalab tag'in razm soldi - pakana odam haqiqatan ham yo"q edi. Hakam chuqur xo"rsinib joyiga o"tirarkan, stol ustidagi suvga qo"lini uzatib bir-ikki qultum suv ichdi. So"ng ayb ish qilib qo"ygan boladay boshini egib o"tirib qoldi.

The Myth of the Birth of the Hero: A psychological interpretation of mythology - Otto Rank 2021-09-27

The prominent civilized nations, such as the Babylonians, Egyptians, Hebrews, and Hindoos, the inhabitants of Iran and of Persia, the Greeks and the Romans as well as the Teutons and others, all began at an early stage to glorify their heroes, mythical princes and kings, founders of religions, dynasties, empires or cities, in brief their national heroes, in a number of poetic tales and legends. The history of the birth and of the early life of these personalities came to be especially invested with fantastic features, which in different nations even though widely separated by space and entirely independent of each other present a baffling similarity, or in part a literal correspondence. Many investigators have long been impressed with this fact, and one of the chief problems of mythical research still consists in the elucidation of the reason for the extensive analogies in the fundamental outlines of mythical tales, which are rendered still more enigmatical by the unanimity in certain details, and their reappearance in most of the mythical groupings.
