La fenomenologia contro se stessa - Graziano Pettinari

2022-04-14T00:00:00+02:00

Per tornare alle "cose stesse", la fenomenologia ha avuto il destino di andare anche contro se stessa. È la radicalità di un'idea avanzata da M. Heidegger negli anni Venti del Novecento. La fedeltà alle Ricerche logiche di E. Husserl contro la sua presunta svolta idealistica in Idee I è la scoperta di un Io che vive nel mondo e del quale non sarebbe soltanto uno spettatore disinteressato. Ma è soprattutto l'esercizio di un doppio atteggiamento da assumere verso la fenomenologia. Esercitata in maniera davvero radicale, la fedeltà all'insegnamento di Husserl si rovescia infatti in un'infedeltà dalle inedite possibilità di pensiero. La fenomenologia deve perciò trasgredirsi, per essere fedele al proprio intento. L'infedeltà è dunque apparente. L'esercizio di critica compie ed esplicita, al più alto grado, il proposito originario dell'atteggiamento fenomenologico. È un paradigma che farà scuola nella ricezione francese della fenomenologia, da E. Lévinas in avanti.

Half the Sky - Nicholas D. Kristof 2010-06-01

#1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER • A passionate call to arms against our era's most pervasive human rights violation—the oppression of women and girls in the developing world. From the bestselling authors of Tightrope, two of our most fiercely moral voices With Pulitzer Prize winners Nicholas D. Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn as our guides, we undertake an odyssey through Africa and Asia to meet the extraordinary women struggling there, among them a Cambodian teenager sold into sex slavery and an Ethiopian woman who suffered devastating injuries in childbirth. Drawing on the breadth of their combined reporting experience, Kristof and WuDunn depict our world with anger, sadness, clarity, and, ultimately, hope. They show how a little help can transform the lives of women and girls abroad. That Cambodian girl eventually escaped from her brothel and, with assistance from an aid group, built a thriving retail business that supports her family. The Ethiopian woman had her injuries repaired and in time became a surgeon. A Zimbabwean mother of five, counseled to return to school, earned her doctorate and became an expert on AIDS. Through these stories, Kristof and WuDunn help us see that the key to economic progress lies in unleashing women's potential. They make clear how so many people have helped to do just that, and how we can each do our part. Throughout much of the world, the greatest unexploited economic resource is the female half of the population. Countries such as China have prospered precisely because they emancipated women and brought them into the formal economy. Unleashing that process globally is not only the right thing to do; it's also the best strategy for fighting poverty. Deeply felt, pragmatic, and inspirational, Half the Sky is essential reading for every global citizen.

The Long Short Walk - Steve Woodward 2016-07

It s something we all dread; the knock at the door from a Traffic Cop. We instantly fear the worst and for more than 3,000 families every year in Britain that fear sadly becomes a reality. The Police officer has come to deliver the news that their loved one has died in a road incident. But what happens after they have been told? Does the Police officer simply walk away? Is the family left to fend for itself? Thankfully not. A small group of specially trained Police Family Liaison Officers (FLO s) do what most of us could never do. They guide the bereaved family through the entire process, from delivering the trauma message in the first place, to helping them through the ordeal of identifying their loved one at the mortuary, right through to the inquest or court case in 12 months time and everything in between. PC Steve Woodward describes the journey the families embark upon as the biggest roller coaster ride of their lives with more highs and lows than you could ever possibly imagine.
